Calimnia a pour origine la création des eaux, symboles précieux de la vie. Poséidon, dieu des mers et époux de la Terre, s'éprend d'amour pour Calypso, oubliant totalement l'adultère et ne vivant plus que pour une nymphe de la mer au caractère révolté et au charme ensorceleur. Cette pièce construite sur quatre parties, présente l'amour tempétueux et désireux de ces deux personnages mystiques. Le début symbolise le mouvement des vagues et leurs fracas contre les rochers de l'île Ogygie, royaume divin de Calypso. L'entrée des solistes présente l'alliance et la complicité régnant dans cet amour couvert de baisers et de mots doux. Le « tutti » intervenant au milieu de la pièce amène à nouveau à l'image du paysage océanique infiniment immense qui s'agit tout à coup sous les palpitations du cœur de Calypso. La dernière intervention solistique présente le discours bien attendu de Calypso au sujet de l'épouse de Poséidon. Tout en écoutant son cœur, celui-ci rassure immédiatement la pauvre nymphe angoissée à l'idée de perdre son premier véritable amour, en lui promettant un amour éternel et passionné jusqu'à la fin des temps dans un royaume aquatique des plus merveilleux. Ce qui signe la réunion des deux âmes divines à tout jamais liées par leur destin...

N'oublions jamais que l'Homme est né des océans, des mers, des fleuves, des rivières, de la moindre petite particule d'eau. Et surtout n'oublions pas que la naissance de l'être humain est issue d'un amour. Peu importe la façon dont vous entendrez parler de cet amour, mais une chose est sûre, c'est un amour divin...
